

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PUPILS, PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

Who Will Own My Data Once I Submit It?

Rosebank School

Why Do You Need My Information?

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to support the safeguarding of pupils

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Names, telephone numbers and e mail addresses of close family members
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Relevant medical information
- Special educational needs information
- Safeguarding information including those relating to social care
- Payments to school

What Allows You To Use My Information?

We collect and process pupil information as part of our public functions under both the Data Protection Act and Article 6, part (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

The legislation and guidance that allows us to do this in the UK includes, but is not limited to:

- The Education Pupil Registration \(England\) Regulations 2006
- Education \(Information About Individual Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2013
- Education Act 2002
- Education Act 2011
- Government Guidance on Schools and Education

Information we collect and process in excess of the above legislation and guidance relies in some cases on your consent, which you have the right to withdraw at any time, such as using information and photos on Tapestry, Facebook and learning software. In some cases it would be for legitimate interest for example providing information of a medical condition to the provider when taking a child on an educational visit.

Who Will My Information Be Shared With?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- professionals when seeking referrals to services such as CAMHS, Occupational Therapy, social care
- professionals involved with children's physical, medical or social care
- Speech and Language Therapy
- pupil learning and assessment software – Tapestry (online learning journal), Onwards and Upwards (online assessment tool), Easimaths (online maths tuition system), Nessy (online dyslexia intervention)
- therapists and coaches contracted to the school
- other parents in child's new class, annually in transition to new classes booklet (name and photograph)
- Edenred FSM food vouchers – parents' name and e mail addresses

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to the Department for Education's website.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database.

Visit the National Pupil Database \(NPD\) website for further information on the National Pupil Database.

The Department for Education may share information about our pupils from the National Pupil Database with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit the Department of Education's website.

Do I Have To Provide This Information And What Will Happen If I Don't?
